Dear Professor Li,

I am pleased to invite you to join the Asia Society Policy Institute in Washington, D.C. for a conference focused on international development cooperation. The conference will take place at our Washington, D.C. office (1779 Massachusetts Ave NW) from April 15 through April 19, 2024.

The purpose of the conference is to foster meaningful in-person exchanges on U.S. – China – Global South international development policies and identify opportunities for cooperation. Your insights would greatly enrich the conference content and outcomes.

My colleagues and I would be delighted to host you for this timely conference and for other relevant meetings. The Asia Society Policy Institute agrees to cover the costs of your roundtrip airfare, lodging, transportation, and meals for your participation from April 15 to April 19, 2024.

If you choose to accept this invitation, kindly let us know by March 7, 2024.

We hope to welcome you to the Asia Society Policy Institute soon.

With warm regards,

Danny Russel
